YOU MUST LEAVE THE EVACUATION ORDER AREA IMMEDIATELY

Members of Police and Fire Services will be expediting this action.

A person must not enter the areas identified above and in the attached map for purposes of residing, occupying or visiting.

Despite the above, staff working in the provincial ministries responsible for roads, and environment, RCMP, FVRD including Chilliwack River Valley Fire Department, and Emil Anderson Maintenance, may enter and temporarily occupy the area described in this order for the purposes of notification of evacuation alerts and orders, assessment of impacts and consequences from flooding notification, and response to the emergency.

The EOC Director with FVRD may, in writing, authorize a person or class of persons to enter and temporarily occupy the area described in this order for the purposes listed above.

YOU MUST PREPARE TO LEAVE ON SHORT NOTICE IF YOU ARE IN THE ALERT AREA

Pack your essentials so you have them if the alert is upgraded to an evacuation order.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

- If you have homeowners' or tenants' insurance, contact your insurance provider to arrange for living expenses such as accommodation and food.
- Do not turn off your natural gas. FortisBC will turn off natural gas service as needed.
- Close all windows and doors.
- Close gates (latch) but do not lock.
- Gather your family and, if you have room, take a neighbor or someone needing transportation. Do not use more vehicles than you must to help reduce traffic congestion. Do take travel trailers if they can be used to shelter your household members.
- Take critical items (e.g., medicine, wallet, insurance policy number/contact) only if they are immediately available. Take pets in pet kennels or on leash.
- If possible, do not make calls on your phone unless you need emergency service to help reduce network congestion.
- Follow the guidance of official emergency services agencies.
- Follow FVRD.ca/EOC for information.
- Sign up to receive emergency alerts from the FVRD via Alertable through text, email, phone and app at FVRD.ca/alerts

EVACUEE SUPPORT SERVICES:

If you are self-sufficient and don't need assistance to meet your basic needs, you are NOT required to self-register for ESS.

If you need assistance from government to meet your emergency shelter needs:

- Create a profile at ess.gov.bc.ca. If you have already created a profile, login at ess.gov.bc.ca. You will receive instructions on how to receive supports.
- If you do not have access to the internet, contact the BC Evacuee Helpline by phone at 1-800-387-4258, including support for registering online at ESS.gov.bc.ca and authentication with the BC Services Card App.

- People evacuated from their homes must have their identity verified using the BC Services Card App to receive ESS support through Interac e-Transfer. The BC Evacuee Helpline can assist with this process.
- Evacuee Support Services will be made available on a case-by-case basis for emergency shelter and food for residents who do not have a primary residence to return to. If this applies to you, please advise the FVRD EOC that you have self-registered as an evacuee. A needs assessment will be performed to connect you with appropriate critically needed evacuee supports.
