Evacuation Alert

Due to increasing risk from K70659 Riley Creek wildfire, Lytton First Nation are urging residents and visitors within the areas listed below to be prepared to evacuate if ordered to do so by emergency officials.

The Evacuation Alert area includes the following Indian Reserves:

NESIKEP IR6 (west side of the Fraser)

What you should do when an evacuation alert is in effect:

- Be prepared to be issued an evacuation order.
- Locating all family members or co-workers and designating a safe meeting place in the event that an evacuation order is called.
- Gathering essential items such as medications, eyeglasses, valuable papers (i.e. insurance), immediate care needs for dependants and keepsakes. Have these items gathered and together in one place for a quick departure.
- Consider moving any disabled persons and/or children to a safe area.
- Moving pets and livestock to a safe area.
- Arranging transport for your household members or co-workers in the event of an evacuation order.
- Arranging accommodation for your family if possible. In the event of an evacuation, emergency accommodations will be provided if required.
- Monitoring news outlets for information on the locations of reception centres and the status of evacuation orders.
